"NO PLACE TO GO"
Bull's Eye Comedy with
Arthur Lake and Olive Hasbrouck

* * * * *

Arthur buys a second hand car for $75. The dealers trick him by pushing it along with one of their own cars. Arthur is elated and stops in front of his best girl's house. She deigns to ride with him but the car refuses to start.

Whatever Arthur touches comes apart. A cop gets his goat and his rival, appearing in a slick roadster upsets him even more; especially when he invites the girl to ride with him. She consents, but insists that he give Arthur a hitch.

The rope breaks when the car reaches the top of the hill. Arthur finds himself with the old bus at the bottom again. Finally it runs into a wall and goes to pieces.

He disguises as a girl and attends Olive's party. He gets away with it for a time, but when he plunges into a swimming tank with Olive and they bob up, still kissing, Arthur demonstrates that he has the strongest hold on the fair girl's heart.
